said to Henry VIII, he said, "Sir," he said, "if you cut down all the trees in England, where will you have to hide when the Devil comes looking for you." And the same is true here. If we do not go through our checkpoints on this legislative resolution, where will the people of the state have to hide when we discover the shortcomings inherent in an unamended, unpublicly heard, unconsidered LR 468. The Chair should be overruled.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall the Chair be overruled? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 16 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to overrule the Chair.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The Chair is overruled. The motion is gone. Do you have anything else, Mr. Clerk? You have those several resolutions. Senator Shirley Marsh, did you wish to handle those all at one time now?

SENATOR MARSH: I move to suspend the rules and take the remaining Legislative Resolutions.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. Would you please turn your lights off so I can see who wishes to speak please. Senator DeCamp, did you wish to speak on this? Your light is on. Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I hate to do this at this last session but what most of these resolutions are in fact congratulatory, sympathy types of resolutions. One of them that Senator Marsh alluded to earlier, 466, is in fact a substantive statement of policy and I would I guess request...I should have done this earlier...would it be possible to consider this one separate from the rest?

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Speaker, I would be glad to amend my own motion so that they will take all except that one.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, Senator Marsh's resolution is taken
